

Pennsylvania Ag Republicans

December 30, 2015

Greetings,

I would like to wish everyone a healthy, prosperous, happy new year. The 100th Pennsylvania Farm Show is fast approaching and the Pennsylvania Ag Republicans will be supporting two events that will be held during the show.

On Saturday, January 9th at 1:30 p.m., Congressman G.T. Thompson, member of the House Agriculture Committee, will be hosting a Congressional Listing Session in the Delaware Room of the Keystone Conference Center at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex. United States Representative Mike Conaway, Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee will be a part of the listening session. They will be available to address all of your questions until 2:30 p.m.

On Monday, January 11th at 3:30 p.m. the Pennsylvania Ag Republicans will have their annual meeting in the Susquehanna Room at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex. The Keynote Speaker will be State Senator Jake Corman from the 34th District of Pennsylvania. Senator Corman is the Senate Majority Leader and chairman of the Rules and Executive Nominations Committee. He is also an ex-officio member of the Senate Appropriations Committee. State Senator John C. Rafferty, Republican candidate for Attorney General and Otto W. Voit III, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer will be there as well to address the attendees.

Please try to make both events to not only support our fellow Republicans but also help to celebrate the 100th Pennsylvania Farm Show. Our treasurer Lisa Nancollas will be available at these events to collect the 2016 PA Ag Republican dues. I will be looking forward to visiting with each of you at both events.

Sincerely,

Michael H. Firestine
Chairman
